CASES ARE REPORTED

Notables of the Catholic Hierarchy in United States Attend Ceremony.

pert Thursday. It will be an 'event' for them which they'll remember." That's the reason the thousands of excited, rosy cheeked little boys and girls, all waving the Stars and Stripes and the yellow and white Papal flags, banked the sidewalks around the cathe and ablaze with decorations and wound stripes, eminent financiers and scientists wearing Papal decorations—that's why the little tads were banked yards deep along the curbs as Archbishop Hayes, a "New York boy" himself, walked into the nation's most beautiful church yeserday and was invested with Rome's ficial insignia of office.

The moment Bishop Hayes, some weeks ago, received official notification that Rome had chosen him to succeed the late Cardinal Farley as Archbishop of New York he was in fact the head of the diocese. Then came subsequent-ly the ceremony of receiving the pastors and assistant priests of the archdiocese, each of whom during an interesting rite one afternoon walked to his throne in as their spiritual head.

But not until the pallium had been conferred upon Archbishop Hayes yesterday by Pope Benedict XV.—the Apostolic Delegate, were Eugene A. Philbin, Dr. Francis J. Quinian, Henry Heide, Morgan J. O'Brien, Adrian Iselin, Jr., W. Bourke Cockran, Victor J. Dowling and Myles Tierney.

The Knights of St. Gregory who the Holy Father—was the ceremony of installation complete. The pallium itself is merely a circular band of white wool, a few inches wide and worn on the shoulders on stipulated occasions; never—shoulders on stipulated occasions; never—F. O'Rourke, Dr. Edward L. Keyes and theless slight as is its intrinsic value. F. O'Rourke, Dr. Ed it is a "badge" of archiepiscopal author-

For two blocks north and south of the Fifth avenue. The Madison avenue trolley cars also were stopped. In front of the cathedral the brass band of the Sixty-ninth took its stand, with squads lains also, who were many wound stripes of the Legion and the wearer of the Legion and the wearer of the Croix & Guerre.

There was Canon Benjamin Cabannel, chaplain of the Blue Devils; Father d'Arrere and Father Bery, French chaplains also, who were many wound stripes The band played the "Adeste Fideles," "Drivard, Christian Soldiers" and finally.
"The Star Spangled Banner" as the procession of brilliartly garbed prelates, soldier priests and seminarians came

The Procession of Prelates.

There were Cross bearers and acolytes at the head of the slow moving process at the head of the slow moving procession, students of Cathedral College wearing lace surplices and black soutannes, seminarians from St. Joseph's. Then the "regular" and "diocesan" clergy, the heads of religious communities, the very reverend monsignori, who were followed by the right reverend monsignori. Next in line rame the following Bishops: William Hickey, Coadjutor Bishop of Providence Edmund F. Gibbons, Blahop of Albany; William Turner, Blahop of Buffalo; Thomas F. Walsh, Bishop of Trenton; John M. Gannon, Bishop Auxiliary of Erie; John J. Cantwell, Bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles; Joseph R. Crimont, S. J., Vicar Apostolic of Alaska; William T. Russell, Bishop of Charlesion; Philip R. McDevitt, Bishop of Charlesion; Philip R. McDevitt, Bishop of Harrishurg; Thomas J. Shahan, rector of Catholic University; Joseph H. Conroy, Auxiliary Bishop of Ogdensburg; Patrick R. Heffron, Bishop of Winona; John J. Lawler, Bishop of Burlington; John J. Kien, Bishop of Burlington; John J. Nian, Bishop of Burlington; Denis J. G. Connell, Bishop of Richmond; Daniel F. Feehan, Bishop of Fall River; William A. Jones, Bishop of Porto Rico; Louis S. Walsh, Bishop of Rocketer; John J. O'Connor, Bishop of Newark; Peter J. Muidoon, Bishop of Newark; Peter J. Muidoon, Bishop of Rockford; students of Cathedral College wear Thomas F. Hickey, Bishop of Rochester;
John J. O'Connor, Bishop of Newark;
Peter J. Muldoon, Bishop of Rockford;
Edward P. Allen, Bishop of Mobile;
Michael J. Hoban, Bishop of Scranton;
Patrick J. Donahue, Bishop of Wheeling;
Thomas D. Beaven, Bishop of Epringtickit; Charles Edward McDonnell,
Bishop of Brocklyn, and H. J. R. de
Silva, Bishop of Trajanopolis.

Four Archbishops in Line.

Four Archbishops, each attended by priests from the local dioceses, followed—the Most Rev. John W. Shaw, Archbishop of New Orleans; Dennis J. Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia George W. Mundelein, Archbishop of Chicago, and Edward J. Hanna, Archbishop of San Francisco.

The chaplains accompanying the visite-

The chaplains accompanying the visit-The chaplains accompanying the visiting archhishops, bishops and other predicts included the Reva Michael J. Phelin, Peter J. Harold, Thomas F. McGare, Cornelius V. Mahony, James M. Hyrnes, John A. Waters, James T. McEntyre, Francis X. Kelly, John A. Nageleisen, John R. Mahoney, Joseph F. Sheahan, John R. Mahoney, Joseph F. Sheahan, John R. Maloney, Joseph F. Sheahan, John P. Cullum, William F. Dougherty, Janiel Burke, Thomas O'Keeffe, Peter F. Guinevan, John Talbot Smith, Richard J. Keeffe, Joseph F. Delaney, Thomas F. Murphy, Bernard F. Brady, John Brospa, Patrick F. MacAran, Thomas A. Laoraton, Francis M. Fagan, John H. normon, Francis M. Fagan, John H.

ARCHBISHOP IS

INVESTED WITH

STATELY RITES

Briody, John D. Roach, Patrick J. Minogue, John G. McCormick, Michael J. Duffy, John J. McCabe, Thomas J. Heary, William R. Hayes, Thomas J. Keenan, John J. Lennon, John F. Kelahan, Patrick N. Breslin, Henry O'Carroll, Joseph C. Campbell, James L. Crosby, Michael J. Henry, George T. Donlin, Joseph F. Flannelly, James B. Curry, Francis P. Moore, James F. Raywood, Joseph H. McMahon, Denis F. Coyle, Joseph G. Dworzak, Hartholomew F. Gelligan, Vincent Arcese, David A. Murray, Dahn J. Harrington, Thomas R. Halpin, Francis E. Laveile, Joseph P. Donahue, John J. Harrington, Thomas P. Phelan, Edward F. Leonard, Francis J. Prunty, James F. McNamarn, Charles J. Prunty, James F. McNamarn, Charles J. Prunty, James F. McNamarn, Charles J. Parks, John J. Hickey, Thomas B. Kelly, Terence E. Gilmartin, James A. Brady, Joseph G. Cushman, Joseph A. Foley.

Masters of Ceremonies.

Briody, John D. Roach, Patrick J. Minogue, John J. Harrick J. Minogue, John F. Kela. John F. Kela. John J. Henry George T. Donlin, Joseph G. Cambell, James B. Curry, Francis P. Moore, James P. Galligan, Vincent Arcese, David A. Murray, John J. Harrington, Thomas P. Phelan, Edward F. Leonard, Francis J. Prunty, James P. O'Brien, Joseph P. Bergan, John J. Hickey, Thomas P. Phelan, Especially he dwelt upon America and all that America stands for in ethics, and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listeners of the mass and he made it clear to his intent listen

Masters of Ceremonies.

Then came the masters of ceremonies, the Very Rev. Mgr. John J. Dunn, the Rev. William B. Martin, Rev. Joseph P. Dineen, Rev. Bernard F. McQuade, Rev. Francis C. Campbell, Rev. Henry F. Hammer, Rev. Martin J. Drury, Rev. Hamilton P. Shea, Rev. Stephen J. Donahue and the Rev. Eugene A. Callaban.

"When I was a little shaver down around the City Hall neighborhood back in the early '70s," said Archbishop Hayes a few days ago when talking with the Very Rev. Mgr. John J. Dunn, Chancellor of the archdiocese, about the plans for the ceremony of conferring the pallium, or symbol of office, upon the new Archbishop, "my aunt took me up to St. Patrick's Cathedral to see some ceremony or other. It's so long ago that 1 forget what it was all about, but the days sticks in my mind as an 'event.' If you can arrange it, John, I'd like to have the children from our parochial schools have a part in the ceremony peat Thursday. It will be an 'event' for them which they'll remember."

Donnahue and the Rev. Eugene A. Callahan.

When the archbishops, the bishops, he monsignor! and priests had passed into view came his excellency Archbishop Denzano, with the Rev. Arthur J. Kenny proceeding him as cross bearer. Attending Archbishop, Hongano also were: Acolytes, the Revs. William A. Fogarty: mitre, Rev. William A. Fogarty: mitre, Rev. Eugene MacDonald; book, Rev. Carlton J. Burns: gremiale, Rev. James A. Byrne; candie, Rev. George W. Foley; assistant priest, Rt. Rev. Mgr. Joseph F. Mooney, V. G.; deacons of honor, Rt. Rev. Mgr. Michael J. Lavelle; deacon of mass, Rev. William Livingston: and sub-deacon of mass, Rev. Edwin M. Sinnott.

The Archbishop Appears.

Finally amid the hurrah and flag waving and the music of the military band came the modest young Archbishop of New York, the Most Rev. Patrick J. hanked the sidewalks around the cathedral yesterday forenoon as a procession of Archbishops, Bishops, Monsignori, surpliced priests, Seminarians, accolytes, Catholic army chaplains in olive drab and Navy chaplains in dark blue and gold; by the hundreds, saliors from Bensonaurst, lines of soldiers from the ranks of the glorious "Sixty-ninth," brass bands, French priests in uniform and ablaze with decorations and wound nam; book, the Rev. James F. Malloy; sremiale, the Rev. Patrick J. Lennon; candle, the Rev. James J. Brown: notarius, the Very Rev. Gherard Ferrante, deacons of honor to his Grace the Most Rev. Archbishop, the Right Rev. James H. McGean, P. R.; the Right Rev. James J. Flood, P. R.; four military vices agrees. tary vicars-general accompanying his Grace the Most Rev. Archbishop, the Right Rev. George J. Waring, U. S. A., V. G.; the Very Rev. William M. Foley, V. G.; the Very Rev. Leslie J. Kavanagh, V. G.; the Very Rev. Leslie J. Kavanagh, V. G.; the Very Rev. Joseph M. Gleason, V. G.; private chaplains, the Rev. Cornelius F. Crowley, the Rev. Joseph F. Smith. Joseph F. Smith.

Laymen in the Procession.

Also there were noted laymen in the the sanctuary of the cathedral, kissed his ring and thereby acknowledged him as their spiritual head.

Suppose Alternoon walked to his throne in companying Archbishop Bonzano being Thomas Hughes Keily and Gerald M. Borden. The Knights of St. Gregory, who also walked just babled to the cathedral of the cathedral it is a "badge" of archiepiscopal authority that came into being back in the dim ages almost 1,600 years ago—the first historic mention of pallia was in A. D. 336—and since then has been accepted by the faithful as the real installation of office.

When it came to arranging the ceremonies of yesterday the laying out of the programme was left, as usual, to Mgr. Dunn. Therefore, also as usual, the procession from Madison avenue and Fifty-first street, to Fifth avenue and so into the Fifth avenue and so int sallors from Bensonhurst and com-intes from the Sixty-ninth Infantry were 228 American Catholic army chap-aciding rigid in front of the church. Iains who had come from far corners of the country to assist at the ceremonies that marked the installation in high of-fice of the head of the army and navy chaplains of the country during the war. The conferring of the pallium was DLUTO eliminates poison from intestines, from the kidneys and through the blood - an ideal remedy for gout. Also beneficial in treatment of other kidney, liver and stomach troubles, rheumatism and nervous disorders.

> Bottled at French Lick Springs and for sale at all drug stores, hotels,

Large Bottle 45c Smaller Bottle 20c

French Lick Springs Hotel Co. French Lick, Ind.

The Archbishhop had as his luncheon guests many of the notables who had taken part in the procession and the ceremonies of installation. Last night the Catholic Club had its club house ablaze with light when the club gave a reception to his Grace the new Arch-bishop, in honor of his investiture.

FARMER AGAIN HEAD OF NEW YORK MASONS

All Other Officers of Grand Lodge Reelected.

The 138th annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons closed its session yesterday with the reelection of William S. Farmer of Syracuse as Grand Master; Robert H. Robinson, Manhattan, leputy grand master: Arthur S. Tompkins, Nyack, senior grand warden; Har-old J. Richardson, Lowville, junior grand warden; Christopher G. Mollenhauer, Brooklyn, grand treasurer, and Robert Judson Kenworthy, grand secretary.

Lleut-Gov. Harry C. Walker of Binghamton and Arthur K. Kuhn of New York were reelected for three years as commissioners of appeals. James T. Somers of Utica was chosen a trustee of the Masonic Hall and Asylum Fund. of the Masonic Hall and Asylum Fund.

Before adjournment Jose A. Carras, a New York delegate, who had opposed the adoption of a rule requiring English only to be used in conducting lodge rites,
made a statement in which he affirmed
his loyalty to the Government and said that those who had joined him in the protest had not done so for unpatriotic reasons.

Supreme Court Justice Townsend

Supreme Court Justice Townsend Scudder made a further report on over-seas work, stating that at Cobienz a German Masonic temple had been turned over to American soldiers without com-pensation. The Germans had cooperated in every way with the overseas mission, Justice Scudder said. It was announced that $550,000 has been collected to build a memorial hos-pital at Utica and for defraying the ex-

Brussels Bank Workers Strike. BRUSSELS, May S.—Employees of banks and insurance companies went on a twenty-four strike yesterday in sup-port of their demands for a general betterment of working conditions. All the banks were closed.

'MONK' EASTMAN AGAIN A CITIZEN Toronto Fugitive Taken Near Scene of Murder.

Gov. Smith Restores Privileges for Ex-Gangster's Bravery in War.

Albany, May 8.—Edward Eastman, better known to New York as "Monk," a man whose name for years was a synonym for badness, gang leader and general ne'er-do-well, has been given back his citizenship by Gov. Smith for his services in the war. Bad as he was, Monk knew how to fight and enlisted when he found that Uncle Sam warted able bodied scrapping men. Monk showed that the quality of patriotism was not lacking even in the heart of a gaugster.

a gangster.
So when he was discharged and Col. So when he was discharged and Col. Franklin W. Ward and Lieut Joseph A. A. Kerigan of the 106th Infantry of the Twenty-seventh Division, recommended that recognition be made of Eastman's services, Gov. Smith was glad to act. Col. Ward called attention to the fact that Eastman was not drafted but had enlisted, and that "his record throughout the war had been exceptional and his service honest and faithful." And no soldier could ask more than that. Also, it seems, that war has taught Eastman that honest work is a lot better than living by one's wits, and ## he was charged with shooting a man for pay in a Bowery saloon. He disap-peared after the United States entered the war and it was not for some time that it was learned he was in Camp Wadsworth with other recruits for the Twenty-seventh.

Bar Association Reelects Officers and Names Five Trustees.

BROOKLYN LAWYERS MEET.

The Brooklyn Bar Association met last night at 121 Remsen street and re-elected its executive officers and named five trustees for three years. The offi-cers are Robert H. Wilson, president; oers are Robert H. Wilson, president; former Justice Luke D. Stapleton, Jacob Brenner and Edward J. Byrne, vice-presidets; Henry S. Rusquin, recording secretary; Patrick E. Callahan, corresponding secretary, and Edward L. Snedeker, treasurer.

The trustees are James P. Judge, Alexander McKinny, Mr. Byrne, Mr. Brenner and Michael Furst.

SLAYER WHO BROKE MOTOR LICENSING JAIL IS CAPTURED

For the first time since the outbreak of the spanish influence of the S bars of the cell and made the first known "death cell getaway" in Canada. The death watch, who alleged he was drugged, was arrested and Miss Vera Lavelle, McCullough's Jancee, who had taught Eastman that honest work is a lot better than living by one's wits, and it is probable that the nickname of "Monk" will pass from him.

In the attack on Vierstaat Ridge he was wounded and sent to a casualty clearing station, where he stayed only three days. When he heard that his regiment was expected to return to the line he escaped from the hospital, equipped himself from a salarge dump and rejoined his company. He was with it during the whole of the Hindenburg line assault.

Eastman was well known to the police before he enlisted and cut out the chance to make a new life for himself. He was twice arrested for shooting, once when he shot a detective and again when when he shot a detective and again when he was charged with shooting a man struction there. The boat is named for for pay in a Bowery saloon. He disapthel late Hilary A. Herbert, former Secretary of the Navy, and the sponsor was Mrs. Ella Herbert Micou, Washington, D. C., a relative.

Six Little Servants Of the Home

These six Little Electric Servants will work for $1.66 a month

Electric Iron

Four hours use weekly

70C monthly

Electric Toaster

Fifteen minutes every day 3 OC monthly

Electric Percolator

Fifteen minutes every day

30C monthly

Electric Washing Machine Average family washing

I 5C monthly

Electric Vacuum Cleaner Used an hour a week

I 2C monthly

Electric Sewing Machine One hour a day, six days weekly

QC monthly

TOTAL $1.66 monthly

The New York Edison Company

At Your Service General Offices: Irving Place and 15th Street

District Offices

where Electrical Appliances of all kinds are on display 484 Broadway

151 East 86th St between Lexington & 3d Aver near Canal St to Irving Place corner 15th 6t 15 East 125th St near 5th Ave *124 West 42d St between B'way & 6th Ave 362 East 149th St near Courtlandt Ave

555 Tremont Ave corner Monterey Ave Open Until Midnight

ability to drive. A tax of $2 is provided for every operator's license.

The Governor issued a memorandum on this bill explaining why he signed it. NO NEW INFLUENZA although there was much opposition be-

"Inexperienced drivers should not be permitted to operate motor cars in any place within this State, particularly in the city of New York, where the population is so congested."

Infolia deaths for the day reached a total of thirty-three, six more than on Wednesday.

Pneumonia cases reported by boroughs were: Manhattan, 2; Brooklyn, 3; Bronx, 0; Queens, 2; Richmond, 0; total, 7.

Quality-Superb

Makers of the Highest Grade Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World